

Our Sustainability Principles

At WestLB, sustainability management

- means actively taking economic, environmental and social aspects into account when planning our activities;
- is an integral element of our corporate activities and is constantly being evolved;
- means developing sustainable products for our clients and promoting sustainable activities at our clients;
- ensures compliance with acknowledged sustainability standards.